

MEET SATURDAY TO SELECT SITE

Board of the School for Colored Deaf, Dumb and Blind to Meet—Petersburg News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., May 19.—A letter from Secretary W. C. Ritter, of the Virginia State school for colored deaf, dumb and blind children, to Secretary R. L. Quarter, of the Chamber of Commerce, announces that the board of visitors of the institution, which examined "Ellerslie," the Dunlop farm, near this city as a prospective site for the school last Friday, will meet in Richmond next Friday, when a decision as to the location will be made.

For Memorial Arch.
With a subscription of $250, State Senator Charles T. Laster has started the fund for the erection of a granite arch viaduct over the Cox Road across Old Town Creek, in Dinwiddie county, which, as stated in The Times-Dispatch last Saturday morning, he proposes shall be dedicated to the memory of the young soldiers of the A. P. Hill Rifles who died in discharge of duty during the Spanish-American War. The Dinwiddie county has undertaken to improve part of the road between Petersburg and the county courthouse under the direction of the State Highway Engineer, and the present plan is to accomplish the two-fold object of erecting a monument to the Petersburg soldiers, and at the same time to aid the county's work in the improvement of this important road. It is proposed that the following inscription be placed upon the viaduct:

This viaduct was erected in honor of the memory of those members of the Petersburg company known as

A. P. HILL RIFLES.
Company K, 4th Virginia Infantry, United States Volunteers, who gave their lives in the discharge of duty during the Spanish-American War of 1898: Corporal J. Crawford Smith, Private J. C. Spotswood, Frederick Abel, John R. Kelly, Kelly Giles and Thomas L. Hall.

"Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori."

Brief Petersburg Items.

"Buckskin," a Petersburg negro, who left here some time ago with a carnival company, and was sent to jail in Emporia for six months on a charge of house-breaking, broke from the jail yesterday morning, and after escaping the police, was captured at the Roanoke River and locked up again within half an hour after his escape.

The trial of the five misdeamors charges against Eli Tartt, acting pastor of the Harrison Street Baptist Church, colored, and of the nine charges against Pleasant Webb, one of the deacons, brought by the anti-Tartt faction in the congregation after the recent riot in the church, was continued in the Mayor's Court this morning until to-morrow on motion of Paul Pettit, of counsel for the defense, and because of the absence of Richard B. Davis, associate counsel, who was to-day engaged in a case before the Supreme Court of Appeals in Richmond. To-day was registration day, but little business was done by the registrars at the voting precincts.

It is understood that negotiations for the sale of the Shirley Hotel, on West Tabb Street, are pending between F. K. Clements, formerly manager of the Stratford Hotel, and George A. Whitmore, of the Shirley.

DEEP CRACKS FROM ECZEMA

Could Lay Slate-Pencil in One—Hands in Dreadful State—Disease Defied Remedies—Suffered Seven Years.

FOUND A PERMANENT CURE IN CUTICURA

"I had eczema on my hands for about seven years and during that time I had used every kind of remedy, together with physicians' and druggists' prescriptions. The disease was so bad on my hands that I could not lay a slate-pencil in one of the cracks and a rule placed across the hand would not touch the pencil."

—Skin Lotion, Remedy and others externally but I did not use any internal remedy, and while some gave partial relief, none cured me. I made a purchase of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and used them on hand for several weeks, and my hands were perfectly cured after two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one box of Cuticura Soap were used. I now keep them on hand for sunburn, etc., and use Cuticura Soap for shaving. I could write a great deal more in reference to my cure but do not want to take more of your time. William H. Dean, Newark, Del., Mar. 28, 1907."

CHILD SUFFERED With Sores on Legs—Cured in Two Weeks by Cuticura.

"My little daughter suffered with sores on her legs all last summer. Her feet were sore, too, and she could not wear her shoes. I think she was poisoned by running through weeds but the doctor said it was eczema. I tried several remedies but failed to find a cure. Then I sent for Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her in two weeks. I find Cuticura the best I ever tried for any kind of sore and I hope I shall never be without it. Mrs. Gertie Laughlin, Ivydale, W. Va., Apr. 25, 1907."

DR. VINES GOES TO BROOKLYN CHURCH

Eloquent Norfolk Pastor Accepts Call, Greatly to the Regret of His Congregation.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, May 19.—Rev. Dr. William M. Vines has accepted the call to the Hanson Place Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., and will remove to his new field of labor October 1st.

While Dr. Vines announced his decision last night to the board of deacons of Freeman Street Baptist Church, the fact was not given publicity until to-day. The fact that he would accept had been known unofficially for several days. He had the call under consideration several weeks before he was finally led to accept and give out the official announcement.

Dr. Vines has been with the Freeman Street Church for about five years, and under his leadership the congregation has developed and grown until it is now recognized as one of the strongest churches in the South.

Dr. Vines is popular in Norfolk, and his removal has been a source of regret to many. He is relinquishing the congregation with reluctance. He leaves, despite the fact that the church here has offered to meet the salary he will receive in his new field of labor.

PROFESSOR SAUNDERS ACCEPTS.

Given Up Position at V. P. I. to Become State Commissioner.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSBURG, VA., May 19.—William Dabney Saunders, professor of dairy husbandry at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, announced to-day that he would accept the position of State Commissioner and Food Inspector tendered him recently by Governor Swanson, and would take up the work at the end of the present session of the V. P. I. He leaves for Washington to-night to consult with the dairy experts of the United States Department of Agriculture, and later in the week will go to Richmond to qualify for the duties of his new office.

Professor Saunders is a native of Franklin county, and a brother of Hon. E. W. Saunders, member of Congress from the Fifth District. He came to the V. P. I. in 1896 as an assistant in the agricultural department, and superintended of the creamery. He was made a full professor of dairy husbandry last year, and his appointment as Dairy Commissioner came to him entirely unsolicited. Professor Saunders has been most successful in his management of the institute dairy department, making it a profitable department of the college and creating an interest in the dairy business, not only among the farmers of Montgomery county, but throughout the State. He has established a reputation for the milk and cream handled by this creamery in many of the principal cities of the East, and the exhibit at Jamestown last summer arranged and carried out under his personal supervision, created much favorable comment.

PULASKI, VA., May 19.—Quite a good deal of excitement was caused last night at the tent meeting being held here by Mr. D. B. Strouse. After he had concluded his prayer, a man in the audience, who had pictured very vividly the star in the east and the wise men following it, he extended an invitation for the present meeting to come up and acknowledge Christ before men.

A man named Jim Saunders marched up to the rostrum with a star pinned to his coat, and pointing to it said to Mr. Strouse, "This is your star. You follow me." Mr. Strouse refused, saying, "he didn't know what he meant," while Saunders persisted that he would take him to jail. It was necessary for the police to take Saunders and lock him up to prevent him from coming up the rostrum again.

It was found that Saunders was crazy, and the authorities at Marion have been notified to come and take him to the asylum.
